A taxi driver's life

Tom Adams is a taxi driver. He comes from a small town near Dublin, but now he lives and works in London. London news journalist Sally Richards talks to Tom about his life and job.

How do you start a typical working day, Tom?

Well, I get up at half past three in the morning, I have breakfast and take a shower. I eat eggs and I always drink a lot of coffee before I start work. It's dark at half past three in the morning, so it's difficult to get up when it's so early. Then, I get into my taxi and drive around the streets near my house.

How many hours do you work?

Every day is different. Sometimes I start at four in the morning and work until lunchtime – 12 o'clock or 1 o'clock. On other days, I work until four. That's 12 hours! It's a long day.

Do you like your job?

I love it. I meet lots of people from all over the world and I get lots of interesting information from them. Many people are very friendly. Sometimes I have people in my taxi who don't talk a lot, and that's OK, too. I always help the old people I have in my taxi—I take their shopping to their house for them. When I finish work at lunch time, I have free time in the afternoon to do lots of other things. That's great! I play football with my friends or go swimming, and sometimes I go shopping. My wife finishes work at 6 o'clock, so I usually make dinner for her. She likes that!

Do you go to bed early?

Oh yes! I usually go to bed around 9 o'clock and sleep for six or seven hours. I watch the news on TV every night and I usually read a book in bed before I go to sleep.

Stephen That's a nice photo, Diana.

Diana Thanks, Stephen.Stephen Who are all those people?

Diana Well, the woman with the blue coat and brown hair is my sister, Catherine.

Stephen Oh right, she's a nurse at Redwoods Hospital.

I remember.

Diana Erm, she's a doctor actually.

Stephen Oops, sorry about that. And is that her husband wearing the black sunglasses?

Diana That's right. And this is their son, Bradley. He's at university now.

Stephen I think they've got a daughter, too?

Diana Yes, her name's Lily and she's still at school. She's 17 now.

Stephen The same age as my daughter, Sophie. And who's this girl with the red T-shirt?

Diana That's Kazumi, Bradley's girlfriend. She's Japanese.

Stephen Does she speak English?

Diana Oh yes...her English is really good. She's in Bradley's class at university.

Stephen Well, it's a lovely family photo...everyone looks happy!
