Reading and Writing A

READING

1 Read the text. Tick (✓) True or False.

Teenagers then and now

Karen Johnson is a bank manager. She's 43, she's married, she has a daughter and a son, and she lives in a small town in the south of Scotland. But 25 years ago, she was an 18-year-old teenager. It was the 1980s, and she lived in Manchester, England.

'I hated being a teenager,' says Karen. 'Now, I look back, and I think, "Wow, what a fantastic time I had!" but then it was terrible. I didn't like my hair or my clothes. I thought my mum was great, but I didn't think my dad was great. He told me what to do all the time, but I never listened! I wanted to be cool, but I wasn't. I didn't have a boyfriend, and my clothes were terrible. I wore short skirts and tight jeans and a lot of make-up. I listened to New Romantic pop music – Spandau Ballet and Adam and the Ants were my favourites. At the weekends, I always went out to clubs with my friends and didn't come home until two or three o'clock in the morning.'

'Today, a lot of people go to university when they finish school, but it was difficult when I was young. My friends and I finished school at 18, and there weren't any good jobs. I worked in a shop for two years. I was 20 when I got a job in the bank, and I had to work hard. I'm the manager now, but it wasn't easy to get to this position – I went to night school and did some extra courses.'

Olivia Johnson is Karen's daughter. She's a student, and she's 18 next week. She lives in Leith, a town near Edinburgh, Scotland, with some friends. Her parents and her brother live in a house nearby.

'I like being a teenager,' says Olivia. 'I have good friends and a really nice boyfriend. I don't go out very often, but I text my friends all the time or we chat online. On weekdays, I meet my friends in a café near my school, or I watch films at my boyfriend's house. Sometimes we go to a cinema on Saturday night. I usually wear comfortable clothes – T-shirts and jeans, and I download a lot of music from the internet.'

'I study German at school, but I'm going to study Chinese at university next year. I love languages, and I want to work in different countries.'

END-OF-COURSE TEST

Listening 1

- Justin Did you have a nice weekend, Martha?
- Martha Yes. It was great. It was very different from my typical weekend, though. My husband Kieran and I usually stay at home, and my parents come to our house for lunch or we invite some friends over. But last weekend, believe it or not, we went to a music festival...
- Justin Wow! Was it good then?
- Martha Fantastic! My children stayed at my parents' for the weekend, and Kieran and I went to the festival.
- Justin Sounds great! Was it good fun?
- Martha Oh yes! We had a great time. Well... Saturday was great, anyway. It was sunny, and the bands were fantastic. But the next day wasn't so good. It was a bit cold and I was really tired. But it was OK.
- Justin Cool. So how long were you there?
- Martha Well, the festival actually started on Friday but we didn't want to stay for two nights. So, we didn't go on Friday. We got there on Saturday morning and left late on Sunday. The traffic was terrible, so we didn't get home until half past eleven.
- Justin Who did you see?
- Martha A French band I didn't know, but they were really good. Then there was an Australian band... Actually, no, there wasn't. I thought they were Australian, but they were American. And then...
- Justin Don't you know the names of any bands?
- Martha Oh sorry. You know I'm really bad with names. I can't remember who I saw and it was only two days ago! I know there weren't any English bands, which was a surprise. Anyway, what about you? What did you do at the...

Listening 2

- 1
- Receptionist Would you like a single room or a double, Madam?
- Woman Oh, a double, please. With a mountain view. And a TV in the room.
- Receptionist Oh... I'm sorry. There are no rooms with a mountain view at the moment. But we have a nice room with a TV and a view of the town. It's a great view, actually. You can't see the mountains, but you can see the sea.
- Woman Oh... OK. That's fine. How much is it?
- 2
- Michael What do you like doing at the weekends, Angela?
- Angela Well, I work really hard from Monday to Friday so, for me, weekends are for relaxing.
- Michael And how do you relax?
- Angela I don't usually go out in the evenings. I prefer staying at home and cooking a nice meal for me and my friends and then watching a good film.
- Michael So, no sports at weekends for you then!
- Angela No! I go to exercise classes during the week, but at the weekend, I'm lazy!
- 3
- Marc Who did you meet at Rick's party, Amy?
- Amy Oh, well his mother was there and it was nice to talk to her. His dad was away on business I think. I met his brother James, too, and James's new girlfriend. And I met a lot of Rick's friends from university. It was a great party and interesting to meet everybody.
- 4
- Man Good evening. Can I help you?
- Woman Yes, I want to book a table for ten people for Friday the fifth of May at seven o'clock.
- Man Sure. Can I have your name please?
- Woman It's Tania Sullivan
- Man How do you spell your name?
- Woman It's T-A-N-I-A... that's with an 'i' and not a 'y'. And the surname is S-U-L-L-I-V-A-N.
- Man OK. Yes, that's booked for you now, so see you on Friday.
- Woman Great – thanks!
- 5
- Anna How are you going to get to the airport, Simon?
- Simon I don't know. It's a real problem. I can't drive there because my car's at my parents' house.
- Anna Well, take the train... it's very fast and comfortable.
- Simon Yes, good idea, but it's expensive. Actually the bus only takes half an hour, and it stops outside my house. It's cheap, too! So, that's the best idea, I think... OK I've decided... I'm taking the bus.
- Anna Have a great holiday!
