Twins – the same ... but different, too

Twenty-three-year-old Nicky and Debbie Patmore have the same birthday, the same parents and the same green eyes. They're identical twin sisters.

'Debbie works in a bank, but I don't have a job,' says Nicky. I'm a student. I study about ten hours a week. The rest of the time I go out with my friends and listen to music. Debbie likes music, too, but she doesn't go to parties or concerts.

'These are Debbie's clothes – they're all black and white. My clothes are pink and white. These are Debbie's running shoes. She goes running every evening with her boyfriend. He's a basketball player. I don't like sport at all.'

Debbie says, 'Nicky's a student but she doesn't study much. In the evening she sits at her computer, but she doesn't do any work.'

'She has an avatar – an online identity. She doesn't talk about it to me, but I know that her avatar's a singer.'
