Australia – a great place to be

When people think of Australia, they often picture beautiful beaches, lovely weather, and lots of dangerous animals – such as salt water crocodiles and taipan snakes! It's true that we have these things, but Australia is more interesting than you might think.

Australia is in the South Pacific and it's the world's biggest island. We don't have any borders with other countries and our closest neighbours are Papua New Guinea and East Timor. Australia is the sixth largest country in the world. It's thirty times bigger than the United Kingdom, but nearly three times more people live in the UK. In the centre of the country there is a lot of desert. Most Australians live near the coast, where the country's biggest cities are.

There are plenty of exciting cities to visit here, including Canberra, our capital, and Sydney, which is famous for its Opera House and amazing harbour. However, it is Melbourne which is near the top of the list of the 'most exciting cities of the world'. It has wonderful beaches, a great nightlife, fantastic shops, and lots of arts festivals and exhibitions.

Australia is a fascinating place to visit. We're very proud of our country and we usually welcome tourists. Our way of life isn't very formal, but we often take presents when we visit people. If someone invites you to dinner, it's a good idea to take along flowers or wine for your host.

The good weather means we can do lots of outdoor activities. Summer lasts from December to February, and winter from June to August. However, Australia is enormous and the weather isn't the same everywhere. The north has two types of weather – very wet and very dry! The centre stays dry all year round. But in the south, the weather changes from season to season. Summer in the south is hot, but winter can be cold, wet, and windy – you can even go skiing in the mountains!

Come and visit.

FILE 10 Listening 1

Interviewer Excuse me. I'm doing a survey about people's holidays. Can I ask you and your husband a few questions?

June Yes, of course.

Interviewer First of all, can you tell me your names?

June I'm June Smith and this is my husband, Thomas.

Interviewer And are you from Bristol?

Thomas No, we're from Bolton. We're visiting our daughter – she's at university here.

Interviewer Can you tell me about your last holiday?

Thomas We had a week in Bridlington, on the east coast. It was really nice and we had sunny weather all week. There are lots of interesting things to do there – we had some nice walks and visited the museum and art gallery. It wasn't expensive either. And the holiday apartment was very comfortable – great views of the sea from our bedroom window.

June Well, I didn't enjoy it. It was cheap and the weather was nice, but Bridlington wasn't very exciting. It was very quiet in the evening and there was nothing to do. It was sunny, but I couldn't sunbathe or swim in the sea. I like hot countries and I like to go dancing in the evening. And it's better to stay in a hotel. I don't want to cook or make beds when I'm on holiday!

Interviewer So, where are you going to go for your next holiday?

June Well, I want to go somewhere exciting. Maybe New York. I can go shopping during the day and Thomas can visit some of the museums. Then, in the evening we can do some sightseeing and visit some of New York's restaurants and nightclubs.

Thomas No, thanks! I don't like big cities and sightseeing is boring. I prefer to find places that are quiet and relaxing. I'm going to buy a new mountain bike and travel round the coast of Ireland.

1

Presenter There's only ten minutes to go until the end of the match and the score is 2–1. Leeds are definitely the better team today and they look very strong. Manchester City aren't playing very well. They scored the first goal, but they look quite tired now. I don't think they're going to get another goal before the end of the game.

2

Presenter 1 Now it's over to Jonathan Hodge for the weather. Jonathan, the weather is really bad at the moment. Is it going to be better later on in the week?

Presenter 2 You're right, Tricia. The weather isn't very nice. It's snowing all over the country at the moment, and it's very cold. The average temperature is only two degrees. That's six degrees lower than it usually is at this time of the year. The snow isn't going to stop and temperatures aren't going to get higher.

3

Paul Rosie?

Rosie In the living room, Paul!

Paul Hi. What are you doing?

Rosie I'm moving all the furniture into the bedroom. I don't want to get paint on anything.

Paul That armchair looks heavy. Let me help you.

4

Sara Be quiet! I'm trying to work.

Dom But me and Jake are practising. We're going to enter the school music competition next week.

Sara There are lots of really good musicians in the competition. You can't sing, and everyone is going to laugh at you!

5

Woman Who's the best person for the job, Jim Brown or Terry Webb?

Man Jim has more work experience, but he can't speak German. Terry's German is very good – he went to university in Berlin, but he doesn't have any experience.

Woman Well, most of our customers are German, so we need someone who can speak to them in their language. That's more important.

Man OK, I'll phone them both this afternoon.
