

The London Guide:

The best of what's on in London this Bank Holiday

Art/Dance/Culture	Cinema/Theatre	Special Events	Sport
Art Exhibition See the work of the great artist Salvador Dali at The National Gallery. All weekend from 10a.m. until 5p.m. £15	Shakespeare at Night See Romeo and Juliet outside at Regent's Park Theatre. Saturday, 7p.m. until 11p.m. £30	International Food Fair Taste food from all over the world and meet famous chefs in Brick Lane. All weekend from 10a.m. until 5p.m. £15	Brazil v Argentina Two great football teams and both here in London! It will be a great match at Wembley Stadium. Saturday, 3p.m. £30
Russian Ballet See the world's best ballet dancers in Covent Garden. Saturday/Sunday, 7.30p.m. until 10p.m. £30	Horror Film Day See lots of famous horror films and meet actors, directors and monsters in Covent Garden. Saturday, 1p.m. until 11p.m. £15	Rock Concert See the best London and international rock bands in Hyde Park. Saturday, 1p.m. until late Free	Extreme Sports Fair Watch and try extreme sports at the ExCeL Exhibition Centre. All weekend from 11a.m. until 5p.m. £25
French Circus See the world's best circus in Camden Town. Everyday from 7p.m. until 10p.m. £25	Star Wars Film Fair Meet some of the actors, thousands of fans and watch the films in Leicester Square. Sunday, 11a.m. until 5p.m. £15	Street Carnival A celebration of London's different cultures: music, food, dancing and lots more in Notting Hill. Sunday, 12p.m. until late Free	Fun Run Run 5km from Buckingham Palace to the Tower of London with thousands of people or just watch! Sunday, 10a.m. until 4p.m. Free

Saturday 27

morning

9a.m. breakfast with Sarah at The Corner Café

afternoon

evening

Sunday 28

morning

afternoon

evening

Monday 29 BANK HOLIDAY

morning

afternoon

evening