

Asking for help

- Excuse me.
- Can (Could) you say that again, please?
- Can you help me, please?
- Could I have a copy, please?
- Could you explain something, please?
- Is this right (wrong)?
- What does _____ mean?
- How do you say _____ in English?
- How do you spell it?
- How do you pronounce it?
- Where's the stress?
- What's the opposite of fast?
- What's the past tense of eat?
- What's the difference between meet and know?

Apologizing / Making excuses

- Sorry I'm late.
- I couldn't come to class on Thursday. I was ill.
- I couldn't do the homework because...
- I won't be able to come next week because...
- I have to leave early today because...

Working in pairs / groups

- What do we have to do?
- What did he / she say?
- We haven't finished (yet).
- Whose turn is it?
- It's my (your) turn.
- What do you think?
- Do you agree?
- I agree (don't agree) (with you).

Leaving

- A See you on (Wednesday)! B Yes, see you!
- A Have a good weekend! B The same to you. / You too.
