

Unit 3

Wordpower

up

If you don't know, look it	up in a dictionary.
You need to drink	up – the café is closing.
I wish he'd speak	up. I can't hear a word.
I'm really annoyed. Gillian has used	up all the tea again.
Every time I add it	up, I get a different result.
Who's going to clear	up the flat after the party?
Sally's really clever – she picked	up Italian in less than a year.
At every meeting, David brings	up his plan for a staff trip to Chile.
Kathy always looked	up to her father when she was a teenager.
It was rude of them to turn	up so late again.
I can't put	up with Anne's behaviour any more.
Jo runs so fast it will be impossible to keep	up with her in next week's race.