

50 Pronunciation

Main stress

I've seen you drive a sports car.	I know it's a sports car. I've driven a sports car.
I don't trust your driving.	Well, you know my car is off the road?
OK, but could I borrow your car?	Borrow my sports car?!
I don't often ask you favours.	I know you drove it off the road.
You said you wouldn't have your car for 12 weeks.	Don't you trust me?
Er, I've got a favour to ask.	Often enough.
And I won't have it for a few weeks?	Another favour to ask?

A Er, I've got a _____ to ask.

B _____ favour to ask?

A I don't _____ ask you favours.

B Often _____.

A Well, you know my car is _____ the road?

B I know you _____ it off the road.

A And I won't have it for a few _____?

B You said you wouldn't have your car for _____ weeks.

A OK, but could I borrow _____ car?

B Borrow my _____ car?!

A I _____ it's a sports car. I've _____ a sports car.

B I've _____ you drive a sports car.

A Don't you _____ me?

B I don't trust your _____.