

Grammar

1 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first.

- I want to know who told Paul where I was.
What I want to know is who told Paul where I was.
- I love travelling because you meet so many interesting people.
It's because _____.
- Maria spent all her money on a round-the-world trip.
It was _____.
- Mike missed his flight.
What happened _____.
- Our neighbours didn't realise that they'd been burgled.
What our neighbours _____.
- We only booked the hotel yesterday.
It was only _____.

	10
--	----

2 Complete the sentences with a participle form of the verbs from the box.

overwhelm love stand wander visit want

- Overwhelmed by all the attention, Hannah burst into tears.
- _____ away from the group, Mark started to feel rather lost and alone.
- The person _____ by the door is my cousin.
- _____ to make a fuss, Lucy left the room without saying goodbye.
- _____ by millions of tourists every year, London is a fascinating city.
- Although _____ by many, Kate also had a few enemies.

	10
--	----

Pronunciation

3 Underline the stressed syllables.

- take it easy
- let your hair down
- unwind
- have a breather
- take your mind off your troubles
- switch off

	5
--	---

Vocabulary

4 Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

- John drives a very classy car. (class)
- Sally's behaviour at the party was really _____. (scandal)
- Laura has a _____ to laugh nervously when she's stressed. (tend)
- I'm doing lots of exercise to _____ my leg muscles. (strong)
- I think you're not being very _____. Can't you see how upset I am? (sympathy)
- Mark's very _____. No wonder he's the company's top salesman. (persuade)

	10
--	----

5 Complete the sentences.

- After the week you've had, you deserve to let your hair down for a bit.
- I've been burning the _____ oil lately because I've had so much work.
- Relax and _____ it easy. What's the rush?
- Geoff is _____ away the days working on his memoirs at the moment.
- Rosemary will go jogging when she wants to take her _____ off her job.
- If you don't slow _____, you'll end up in hospital.

	10
--	----

Functions

6 Cross out the extra word in each sentence.

- I couldn't agree ~~with~~ more.
- I am agree with you up to a point.
- That goes for against my better judgement.
- How can you to say that?
- It just doesn't make some sense to me.
- Absolutely! I'm with you a 100 percent on that.

	5
--	---

Total:	50
--------	----

Grammar

1 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first.

- I want to know who told Paul where I was.
What I want to know is who told Paul where I was.
- John forgot his keys so he couldn't get into the house.
What happened _____.
- I love Julia's spirit of adventure.
What I _____.
- Maria bought a new car with her bonus.
What Maria did _____.
- Paul didn't realise the danger he was in.
What Paul _____.
- I'd like to know where Steve has gone.
What I'd _____.

	10
--	----

2 Complete the sentences with a participle form of the verbs from the box.

overwhelm know admire eat wish sit

- Overwhelmed by all the attention, Hannah burst into tears.
- _____ to appear rude, Ken decided to keep quiet.
- _____ by all who know him, Peter is a courageous man.
- Do you know the woman _____ by the window?
- _____ two pizzas, Carla started to feel really sick.
- _____ George as I do, I'm not surprised he went off without saying goodbye.

	10
--	----

Pronunciation

3 Underline the stressed syllables.

- take it easy
- unwind
- take your mind off your troubles
- let your hair down
- switch off
- have a breather

	5
--	---

Vocabulary

4 Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

- John drives a very classy car. (class)
- What's the _____ of Manchester United winning the Champions' League this season? (likely)
- My grandparents learned to be very _____ when times were hard. (resource)
- I'd have no _____ in recommending Sarah for the job. (hesitate)
- You're such an _____ to me sometimes. (embarrass)
- Fuel prices have risen _____ over the past few months. (drama)

	10
--	----

5 Complete the sentences.

- After the week you've had, you deserve to let your hair down for a bit.
- I'm going to _____ a breather now as I've been at the computer for hours.
- How long can you go on burning the _____ at both ends? You really need to calm down.
- Jack's working all _____ at the moment so I rarely see him.
- I'd love to go to the Mediterranean and chill _____ for a week.
- It's important to take _____ out to reflect and recharge your batteries.

	10
--	----

Functions

6 Cross out the extra word in each sentence.

- I couldn't agree ~~with~~ more.
- Oh come on over, you must be joking.
- That's absolutely a right.
- I suppose you've not got a point.
- You can't honestly think of that.
- I am agree with you up to a point.

	5
--	---

Total:	50
--------	----