

suspicion. ● My city is on	track to become the largest in my country by 2020. ● The area where I live is constantly at	risk of flooding. ● My biggest worry by
far at the moment is money. ● The manufacturing industry in my country at the moment is in	decline. ● Climate change in the world today is out of	control. ● People in my country are overweight, on
average. ● My country's economy is doing well, at	present. ● Humans are, by	nature, selfish animals. ● I am in
danger of forgetting my English if I don't keep studying. ● When I use public transport, I try to keep my valuables out of	sight. ● People who say bad things about others on the internet should be made to go on	trial for defamation of character. ● Everyone has the right to at
least a basic job. ● Everyone should have to limit their 'carbon footprint' by	law. ● Banning smoking in public places, in	effect limits people's freedom. ● I'm only learning English out of
necessity for my job. ● Recently I've been feeling a little under	the weather. ● If I got a new job this year, I'd be over	the moon. ● When I first started learning English, I was under
the impression it would be easy. ● I have a friend whose way of dressing is very over	the top. ● In my job, you're considered over	the hill when you reach forty. ● Politicians should always be above