International Beans

A fter water, coffee is probably the most popular drink in the world. Coffee has many positive properties that are good for your health. Drinking coffee can help reduce the chances of getting some cancers, stomach and neurological diseases, type 2 diabetes, and even heart disease.

Coffee has had a long and interesting history on its road to becoming the much-loved drink that it is today. The coffee bush was first discovered in Africa in the 9th century. The coffee berries that grow on the bushes contain coffee beans which can be made into a drink. The recipe for this drink was passed from Africa to the Middle East, to Europe, and then to the Americas.

Even though the drink we know as coffee is well known all around the world, most countries have their own special way of making it. 'Cowboy coffee' is made in Finland and Norway by mixing coffee and boiling water together in a kettle and pouring out the liquid into a cup without the grounds. Turkish coffee is made by mixing very finely ground coffee and sugar in a small pot with a long handle called an ibrik. The ibrik is held over a fire and then removed when the coffee comes to the boil. The mixture is poured into a small ceramic cup and drunk slowly, leaving the grounds at the bottom. Italians typically drink small cups of espresso every day and usually don't even sit down when they order it; they drink it and leave. Many people in the U.S. have an electric coffeemaker which uses a filter to separate the water from the coffee. Hot water drips through the grounds and comes out as the drink they know and love. There is even a way to make coffee using a roasted coconut and the milk inside it!

Whichever way you prefer your daily cup of coffee, there's no doubt about it, coffee is something the whole world loves!

1. Coffee is the most popular drink in the world.
2. Drinking too much coffee is bad for you.
3. The first coffee was made in Africa.
4. Coffee is always prepared in the same way.
5. Italians drink espresso quickly.

5. WRITING

Marie lives in Glasgow and she will be going to Spain to do a language course. Read the e-mail she has sent to her friend Roberta, who lives in Seville, and use the prompts given to write Roberta's reply.

Hi Roberta,

I have some great news. I'm coming to Spain for three weeks in the summer! I am doing a two-week Spanish language course; however, during the last week I will be free so I was wondering if I could come and visit you in Seville.

My language course is taking place in Barcelona. It starts on 31st May and finishes on 13th June so I was thinking of coming to Seville for a few days after my course. Let me know when is convenient for you. Also, could you recommend a good hotel in Seville for me to stay in?

I'm really excited about this trip and I hope we'll be able to see each other.

Write back soon.

Take care,

Marie

LISTENING TRANSCRIPT

1.

Man: Well, I found the holiday of my dreams!

Woman: On no, not another one of your crazy trips.

Man: This one isn't crazy, it's educational. You can go with the The Great Canadian Adventure Company in a small research boat underwater to study the wreckage of the Titanic up close and personal!

Woman: Wow, that sounds exciting! You should go for it then.

Man: There's only one problem...

Woman: What's that?

Man: It costs $40,000 to participate!

2.

Woman: Are you excited about flying to Australia?

Man: Of course. I've never been on a plane before.

Woman: Are you scared?

Man: Not at all. I'm really looking forward to it.

Woman: It'll be a long flight to Sydney. That will be a bit boring. Do you have any stops?

Man: Yes we stop in Dubai for a few hours.

Woman: Nice. You can do some shopping in the airport while you're waiting.

3.

Man: That's right, I need to change the date of the ticket. I need to be home earlier than the 25th. Is it possible to return on the 23rd? (pause) Hmm.... that's too bad. I suppose I could do the 20th, if I can change the arrival date to the 15th. (pause) Really? Great, as long as I'm there five days, it doesn't really matter when I get there or leave. I still get the window seat, right?

4.

Man: I used the finger scanner at the supermarket the other day, it's really cool.

Woman: I read about those. They've been around for a while now. I still don't like the idea of a machine scanning your fingerprint. It's like someone is following your every move.

Man: But it's so convenient! It knows who you are, and takes the money right from your bank account. You don't need to carry money or anything with you ever again!

Woman: But isn't it dangerous?

Man: Of course not. It's easier for someone to steal your credit card than your fingerprint.
