Hi! today's blog <sup>0</sup> is about my family!

I <sup>1</sup> _____ (live) with my parents and grandparents in Genoa, Italy. Our family is small because I <sup>2</sup> _____ (not/have) any brothers or sisters. My dad <sup>3</sup> _____ (work) as a teacher. He really <sup>4</sup> _____ (like) his job.

My mum and my grandmother <sup>5</sup> _____ (be) dentists. It's a family business! My grandfather <sup>6</sup> _____ (not/work) because he's retired. Lucky him! And me? I'm a student at the university. My best friend, Gianni <sup>7</sup> _____ (study) at the university too and he <sup>8</sup> _____ (go) there with me on the bus. But we <sup>9</sup> _____ (not/go) there every day - because sometimes we <sup>10</sup> _____ (play) football in the park all day! He he! 😊

Hi everyone!

It's my first week in my new language school in Scotland. It's great and I'm really happy! There are twelve students in my class. Two are from Germany (my friend Claudia and me!), four from Italy, three from Japan and three from Argentina. It's a very international group.

Our teacher is Dave, and he's Scottish. He's from Edinburgh. He's funny and he sometimes plays the guitar. He can speak Spanish, but he doesn't at school. Only English! And he can't speak German, so I always speak English in class. Oh, and he drives a moped to school every day! He never gets the bus because he hates it!

OK, our classroom. Well, there's a whiteboard and a lot of desks. It's very modern. It has big windows too, and we can see the park. We also have a DVD player and we sometimes watch cartoons like the Simpsons!

Oh, and my host family is really good too - the father cooks really well!
