Mad for Manchester!

Everybody knows that Manchester is famous for football. But today the city in the north of England is famous for many other things.

Nowadays, Manchester is great for shopping too. The Arndale Centre is a shopping centre in the centre of town, and there are other big stores too like Harvey Nichols and Selfridges. They're great for clothes.

Manchester is also the home of many top bands like Oasis, and performers like David Gray and Morrissey. You can see a lot of concerts by artists like them at the MEN Arena.

If you're hungry, Manchester is great for food too. There are lots of Indian restaurants and you can also eat classic British food in lots of places, for example the Metropolitan in the centre of town.

But of course, a lot of tourists come to see a game. There are two big football stadiums in the city, one for Manchester United and one for Manchester City. But it's often difficult to buy tickets. Buy in advance!

So come to Manchester! It's easy – there's an international airport right next to the city. What are you waiting for?
