Life in Singapore

Singapore is the <sup>0</sup> best _____ country that I've ever been to. I love it so much. I've been here now <sup>1</sup> _____ February and every day is an adventure. I have never been <sup>2</sup> _____ like it. I'm from England and there aren't any cities in my country that are as modern <sup>3</sup> _____ this. I'm really lucky too because my wife, Mei, grew <sup>4</sup> _____ here and she knows the city really well. She's <sup>5</sup> _____ me loads of new places – and some great restaurants too. For example, the Red Dragon Restaurant – I really recommend it. <sup>6</sup> _____ that they cook is absolutely delicious! Another thing is that the people here are so friendly.

For example, yesterday, I was in the supermarket. I asked someone <sup>7</sup> _____ was working there for help, and she talked to me for hours about my country and Singapore. That was lovely.

OK, <sup>8</sup> _____ knows that there are lots of unusual laws and rules in Singapore. For example, you <sup>9</sup> _____ use chewing gum – the police will stop you! But that isn't a bad thing. Who <sup>10</sup> _____ to live in a really dirty city with lots of crime? Not me – and that's why I'm staying right here! Come and visit, and see Singapore for yourself.

Mind the gap! ~ Simon Morrall

I finished school last year and I decided to take a gap year before going to university. I decided to go to Australia. You can get a working holiday visa if you're 18–30 and you come from Britain (like me!), Ireland, Canada, Holland, Germany, Japan or Korea. It's great! You can stay in Oz
