

A. Look at the pictures? What do you know about these people? Do you think they are good role models?

Great Role Models

Jamie Oliver

Jamie Oliver is a very popular British celebrity chef. Jamie was born in 1975 in Essex, England. The BBC discovered Jamie when he was a young chef in the River Café restaurant in London. His first TV series was very successful; Jamie's style was different from other TV chefs and viewers liked him a lot. Next came Jamie's Kitchen; in that show, he combined cooking and working with troubled teenagers and made an exciting reality show. Jamie trained the teenagers at his restaurant and helped them improve their lives. Jamie is also famous for his work to improve school dinners in the UK through his programme Jamie's School Dinners. Thanks to Jamie, school menus have changed a lot and become much healthier.

TIGER WOODS

Tiger Woods is one of the most successful professional golf players in the world. Tiger started playing golf at the age of two; even from such a young age it was clear that Tiger was going to become a star. In 1984, when he was eight, he won the 9-10 year old boys' event at the Junior World Golf Championships. Then he won the Junior World Championships six times. All through his amateur golfing career Tiger continued to impress spectators and in August 1996 he became a professional golfer. Tiger is also involved in charity work and he formed The Tiger Woods Foundation. This organisation helps troubled children take part in golfing and other non-sports events.

Vocabulary

viewers: people watching TV

combine: put together

troubled: having problems

amateur: not professional

B. Read the texts and complete with the correct name Tiger or Jamie.

- _____ impressed people with his talent from a young age.
- _____ won an event when he was a boy.
- _____ had his own show.
- _____ made changes that affect children's health.
- _____ trained young people.
- _____ started an organisation to help young people improve their lives.