

Speaking Module 3

Traveller

pre-intermediate

Talk in pairs. Imagine that you want to visit another city for a few days and have to find a hotel to stay at. Look at the information of three hotels and compare them. Decide which hotel would be the best option for you. You can use the adjectives given and your own ideas. Then report to the class which hotel you decided on.

cheap/expensive near/far comfortable/uncomfortable peaceful/noisy big/small many/ few

A: I think we should stay at the Comfort Inn because it's the cheapest hotel.

B: Yes, but the Bellevue is nearer to the city centre than the Comfort Inn.

We have decided to stay at the Bellevue Hotel because it has more facilities than the other two hotels.
